Bucks County Firm To Get Army-Navy Award

present senior member of the firm, William F. Fretz. In 1932 Mr. Fretz admitted his son, A. Walter Fretz, as a partner.

Comparing present day operations, with the latest equipment and streamlined production, it is most interesting to realize that old employees are still in active service who worked with the firm when the senior member, William F. Fretz, drove six-horse teams throughout the rural districts, distributing garments to be completed and picking up those to be brought back to the factory.

The employee record with the firm is most outstanding. When the Army-Navy E Award is presented to these employees on January 4th, there will be found several having worked with the firm for over 50 years, a good percentage over 40 years, and the largest percentage over 15 years.

The presentation of the Award will be made by the Army officer, whereas the Army-Navy "E" lapel insignia will be presented by the Navy officer. The two oldest employees in years of service at each of the plants will accept the lapel insignia on behalf of the Fretz organization.
