
Charles Beck Resigns Langhorne Teaching Post

LANGHORNE, Dec. 8 — Charles Beck, a member of the faculty of Langhorne - Middletown high school, is relinquishing his position here effective next Friday. Mr. Beck has accepted a position as teacher of science at Burlington, N. J., high school.

Mr. Beck, who has been at Langhorne high for over 10 years, has taught science subjects, and likewise coached baseball and football.

Named as his successor is Audrey Hackman, who graduated from Pennsylvania State College this month.
