

High School Football

3 Pub stars make Big 33 roster

Slowly but surely, people around the state are gaining respect for Public League football.

Yesterday, three PL stars were selected to represent Pennsylvania against Ohio in the Big 33 All-Star Game, to be played July 24, 7 p.m., in Hershey.

George Washington placed two players on the roster, Maryland signees Bruce Perry (defensive back) and Jafar Williams (wideout). Central placed tackle Damone Jones (Penn State).

"It's a great, exciting moment for Philadelphia public schools," Washington coach Ron Cohen said. "Our kids are going to get an opportunity to showcase their skills. They do a big-time job up there. They even televised the announcement."

Ten players from suburban schools also made the squad. They are:

Matt Schaub, QB, West Chester East; Jim Connor, L, Strath Haven; Ben Carber, L, Central Bucks West; Joe Wilson, L, Central Bucks West; Dave Costlow, L, North Penn; Bryan Scott, DB, Central Bucks East; Shane Twyman, DL, Glen Mills; Antoine Lovelace, WR, Neshaminy; Doug White, L, Norristown; Grant Wiley, LB, Perkiomen Valley. ■

— Ted Silary