Unbeaten Fords Rip Neshaminy, 37-0, for 6th

Royersford High will invade East Greenville Saturday for an important Perk league date with its attack tuned to a perfect pitch.

That was assured Saturday when the Fords hardly worked up a sweat in thumping Neshaminy, 37-0, on the Royersford lawn. It was the sixth win in an unbeaten streak for Coach Bob McNelly's glossy gang.

Paul Fearheller (3 TDs) usurped the spotlight in this fracas, but scrappy, never-let-up Mike Ralston, the Fords' candidate for all-league end, wasn't exactly left in the shadows. Mike bagged two tallies on flings from Freddie DePaoli and Lou Alexander.

A pass interception by Nick Dinnoconti, celebrating his return to combat after a stay in sick bay, put the Fords in first quarter business. Six plays later Fearheller went in from the eight.

End Rogers recovered a Neshaminy fumble to set up the next tally, a 24-yard first quarter romp by the same Fearheller.

In the second quarter DePaoli and Ralston clicked on a 22-yard pass maneuver for an 18-0 intermission rift.

AFTER A SCORELESS third heat, Fearheller wiggled free for a 12-yard TD in the head of the fourth. Ralston and Armond Cinciripino added other six-pointers and Cincy bagged an extra notch with a PAT buck.

Recovered fumbles set up two of the scores as the McNellymen continued to make the most of enemy mistakes.
