

Today's Sports Parade

By OSCAR FRAYLEY

COAL, GABLES, PA (UPI)—A crowd of 100,000 people gathered to bid good-bye to a natural beauty who has become a national sensation. The young woman, who is now two weeks into her 10th month and whose personal life is confined to a farming ability to replace her mother's, is a young girl who looks like a bowling score and a bowling score which should be a 10. She was selected as Miss Teen America in 1959 when I met a kid like Johnny La Fontana.

Johnny is 12 years old, is a six handicap on the golf course and shot a 70 on the golf course on the tough Shawnee, Pa. layout.

Potential Bobby Jones

To look at Johnny, you'd think he was a nice, normal kid instead of a potential Bobby Jones who could out you up like salmon on the greens. He is a constant number one youngster with a hit shot that he and you are smiling. Don't believe all you see. He's got to be a little more Jones than a miniature Dudley Boyd.

Johnny is a young man who's a genius with a golf club. He has won 15 tournaments and he scales only 135 pounds. Johnny's admits modestly that his drive is 200 yards. He says he's a 10 handicap.

Johnny is only about 25 to 25 1/2 years; he blushes in embarrassment. "I guess my putting and long drive is the secret of my game."

Delisted To Golf

He's serious, too. For this he is a younger delinquent to golf and he plays it every day. He's a member of the New York City club; he already is a veteran at 12. Johnny has won 15 tournaments in Long Island, and the boy started swinging a club at the age of 10. He has won 15 tournaments in Long Island, and the boy started swinging a club at the age of 10. He has won 15 tournaments in Long Island, and the boy started swinging a club at the age of 10.

"Sure, I like football and baseball," Johnny says. "But I like my game and I can't hardly wait to play it." He also cannot wait to play it. He also cannot wait to play it. He also cannot wait to play it.

The eternal practice hardly has paid off handily. Johnny has won 15 tournaments in Long Island, and the boy started swinging a club at the age of 10.

Johnny says he is a 10 handicap on the golf course and shot a 70 on the golf course on the tough Shawnee, Pa. layout.

Johnny says he is a 10 handicap on the golf course and shot a 70 on the golf course on the tough Shawnee, Pa. layout.

Stricker, Hart Only Repeaters

By TOM JUNG
Course-Times Sports Writer

There were two repeaters on the 1960 Lower Backs County All-Opponent team as selections in the annual tournament of the circuit. The repeaters, Nick Stricker and Dick Hart, were both selected for backfield positions. Stricker was selected as All-Opponent end. Moving up from the first team's second team to the first team were Nesbany's Harry Schan and Morrisville's Vince Straszynski and ending up with honorable mention last year.

In the first team was selected on the All-5A side team by United Press International, Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Schan finished first in the league's scoring and for the second straight season Schan was named to the second All-5A team by United Press International. Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

The repeaters on the All-Opponent team who were picked on the All-Courier-Times All-Star team. The repeaters on the All-Opponent team who were picked on the All-Courier-Times All-Star team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team. Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

Stricker and Hart were named to the second team.

4960 LBCA ALL OPPONENT FOOTBALL TEAM

PLAYER AND SCHOOL

Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Class
Bill Straszynski, Bensalem	E	6-1	165 Senior
Vince Drueding, Morrisville	T	6-2	165 Junior
John Currie, Nesbany	C	5-9	165 Senior
Kurt Ebert, Delbas	C	5-15	165 Senior
John Stricker, Nesbany	C	6-0	165 Junior
John Carter, Nesbany	T	6-2	160 Junior
Joe Pascale, Bristol	E	6-1	160 Senior
Bob Mudge, Bensalem	E	6-1	175 Senior
John Stricker, Nesbany	E	5-10	165 Senior
Dick Hart, Morrisville	E	6-2	235 Senior
Harry Schan, Nesbany	E	6-2	235 Senior

ENDS: Glenn Taylor, Pennsbury; Ken Cromwell, Tennent; Richie Held, Nesbany; Dick Hill, Morrisville; Bob Goss, Bensalem; Brian Killough, Council Rock.

TACKLES: Jim Brooks, Bristol; Gene Walters, Nesbany; Richard Bross, Nesbany; John Keller, Pennsbury; Mike O'Brien, Pennsbury; Gil Rayo, Wilson; Al Bowman, Bensalem.

GUARDS: Art Ertzold, Bensalem; Brian Baker, Nesbany; Harvey Eberharm, Wilson.

BACKS: Larry Richard, Pennsbury; Charlie Caron, Pennsbury; Rich Johnson, Wilson; Ron Johnson, Council Rock; Bill Heller, Bensalem; Tracy Law, Delbas; Jim Council Rock; Jeff Cannon, Morrisville; Tim Reardon, Bristol; Dave O'Brien, William Tennent; Richie Cominsky, Morrisville; Dan Dougherty, Pennsbury; Dan Sagolla, Council Rock.

Horris Admits Cooney

Paid To Mrs. Carbo

By NORMAN G. CONNISH
Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A Senate committee vowed to "get down to cases" today in their questionings of 12 millionaires accused of tax evasion.

James D. Norris also his attorney, who says he is innocent of the underworld.

The term promise came from the House. Sen. Dan Rostenkowski, D-Ill., said he would introduce legislation to require a special tax on the earnings of millionaires.

But Norris didn't see it that way. He said he had to have certain contacts with underworld figures in order to get along in his business.

Norris said he was "greatly embarrassed by certain newspaper stories which were untrue about his 'hoodlum associations'."

"I am, in a few words, a newspaper reporter," he said. "I do not have any more freedoms than I am free to enjoy."

Retainer allowed Norris to testify in the International Brotherhood of Teamsters case. He said he was "greatly embarrassed by certain newspaper stories which were untrue about his 'hoodlum associations'."

Norris, who owns the Chicago Black Hawks hockey team and maintains a racing stable, used to be president of the IBC. The organization was dissolved by federal court order last year because it was a monopoly.

In other testimony, Thursday, Norris told the subcommittee he wanted to receive a $400,000 fee as a "good will" payment.

Norris admitted during a closed-door hearing more than two years yesterday that he gave the $400,000 to a former associate who had had a bad power over his own firm.

But Norris said he had sought Carbo's help because Carbo "was on my side" in a power struggle with a manager than anyone in business.

Previous conviction in the relationship of the two men rippled into testimony that Carbo had been providing the money and Carbo the influence.

Traub, Jackson, Sagolla Honor At CR Grid Banquet

By DICK DOUGHERTY
Courier-Times Sports Writer

Varsity football took an added meaning for senior left guard and senior right half at the annual annual banquet of the Washington Crossing Inn.

The trio of players were singled out of a crowd of 120 guests and awarded special honors for efforts during the 1959 season at Council Rock this season.

Jackson was given high praise by head coach Dick Traub and given this year's Indian Back of the Year honor. Assistant head Al Spiekman gave the Top Line team award to 6-1, 178-pounder.

Sagolla was overwhelmed when great assistant Jim McGrath named the 6-2, 160-pound signal caller the Most Moved Player.

Top Player

"Not was the best blocker, tackle, guard, game day and the one who stuck it out longest because of many reasons. But the one who stuck it out longest and gave a lot of benefits from it," he said.

The Penn State athletic director, who has spent many years in the program, said he was impressed by the team's performance.

Moran placed the group. "You have taken some good coaching lessons. Rock but you've learned many lessons. These lessons will help you in the game of life."

Robert Newcombe, athletic director at Penn State, and Jerry Morgan, head of the Lower Backs County PIAA Officials Chapter, were the special speakers.

Newcombe said a solid thing with the senior football players at the banquet. "Football is a sport which one can enjoy because of many reasons. But the one who stuck it out longest and gave a lot of benefits from it," he said.

The Penn State athletic director, who has spent many years in the program, said he was impressed by the team's performance.

Moran placed the group. "You have taken some good coaching lessons. Rock but you've learned many lessons. These lessons will help you in the game of life."

Robert Newcombe, athletic director at Penn State, and Jerry Morgan, head of the Lower Backs County PIAA Officials Chapter, were the special speakers.

Newcombe said a solid thing with the senior football players at the banquet. "Football is a sport which one can enjoy because of many reasons. But the one who stuck it out longest and gave a lot of benefits from it," he said.

The Penn State athletic director, who has spent many years in the program, said he was impressed by the team's performance.

Moran placed the group. "You have taken some good coaching lessons. Rock but you've learned many lessons. These lessons will help you in the game of life."

help you in the game of life. The speaker was presented with a CR letter with "top doctor" inscribed on it. "You can't play this letter this year," Hoop said.

Herman Zolter, owner of the Washington Crossing Inn, which sponsored the banquet, also was presented with a CR athletic membership to Council Rock athletic center.

The Rev. David High of the Newtown Methodist Church said the occasion. Other honored guests included Mrs. Alan Spiekman, Mrs. Jim McGrath and Mrs. Dick Hark.

Also introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Sagolla, senior high school principal. Dr. Taylor, superintendent of schools, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Henst, junior high school principal, and Dick Dougherty, head of the Washington Crossing Inn.

Also introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Sagolla, senior high school principal. Dr. Taylor, superintendent of schools, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Henst, junior high school principal, and Dick Dougherty, head of the Washington Crossing Inn.

Also introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Sagolla, senior high school principal. Dr. Taylor, superintendent of schools, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Henst, junior high school principal, and Dick Dougherty, head of the Washington Crossing Inn.

Also introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Sagolla, senior high school principal. Dr. Taylor, superintendent of schools, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Henst, junior high school principal, and Dick Dougherty, head of the Washington Crossing Inn.

Also introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Sagolla, senior high school principal. Dr. Taylor, superintendent of schools, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Henst, junior high school principal, and Dick Dougherty, head of the Washington Crossing Inn.

Also introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Sagolla, senior high school principal. Dr. Taylor, superintendent of schools, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Henst, junior high school principal, and Dick Dougherty, head of the Washington Crossing Inn.

Also introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Sagolla, senior high school principal. Dr. Taylor, superintendent of schools, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Henst, junior high school principal, and Dick Dougherty, head of the Washington Crossing Inn.

Also introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Sagolla, senior high school principal. Dr. Taylor, superintendent of schools, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Henst, junior high school principal, and Dick Dougherty, head of the Washington Crossing Inn.

Also introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Sagolla, senior high school principal. Dr. Taylor, superintendent of schools, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Henst, junior high school principal, and Dick Dougherty, head of the Washington Crossing Inn.

Also introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Sagolla, senior high school principal. Dr. Taylor, superintendent of schools, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Henst, junior high school principal, and Dick Dougherty, head of the Washington Crossing Inn.

Also introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Sagolla, senior high school principal. Dr. Taylor, superintendent of schools, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Henst, junior high school principal, and Dick Dougherty, head of the Washington Crossing Inn.

Also introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Sagolla, senior high school principal. Dr. Taylor, superintendent of schools, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Henst, junior high school principal, and Dick Dougherty, head of the Washington Crossing Inn.

Also introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Sagolla, senior high school principal. Dr. Taylor, superintendent of schools, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Henst, junior high school principal, and Dick Dougherty, head of the Washington Crossing Inn.

St. Michael's Scores 65-33

LOWER BACKS CY GRADE

Team	Score
Delbas	20
Morrisville	15
Nesbany	10
Bensalem	5
Wilson	5
Delbas	20
Morrisville	15
Nesbany	10
Bensalem	5
Wilson	5

St. Michael's of Levittown captured its third straight victory over the Lower Backs County Basketball League last night by defeating Fairless Hills, 65-33.

Richie Dick, St. Michael's basketball star, led the winners with 20 points in 10 field goals.

Player	Points
Dick	20
Stricker	15
Hart	10
Schan	5
Straszynski	5

Team	W	L	T
Delbas	1	1	0
Morrisville	1	1	0
Nesbany	1	1	0
Bensalem	1	1	0
Wilson	1	1	0

Delbas Wins 20-15

Lower Backs County

Team	Score
Delbas	20
Morrisville	15
Nesbany	10
Bensalem	5
Wilson	5

Delbas won its second straight victory over the Lower Backs County Basketball League last night by defeating Fairless Hills, 20-15.

Player	Points
Stricker	15
Hart	10
Schan	5
Straszynski	5

Team	W	L	T
Delbas	1	1	0
Morrisville	1	1	0
Nesbany	1	1	0
Bensalem	1	1	0
Wilson	1	1	0

Delbas Wins 20-15

Lower Backs County

Team	Score
Delbas	20
Morrisville	15
Nesbany	10
Bensalem	5
Wilson	5

Delbas won its second straight victory over the Lower Backs County Basketball League last night by defeating Fairless Hills, 20-15.

Player	Points
Stricker	15
Hart	10
Schan	5
Straszynski	5

Team	W	L	T
Delbas	1	1	0
Morrisville	1	1	0
Nesbany	1	1	0
Bensalem	1	1	0
Wilson	1	1	0

Savings Are Greatest At America's Finest Discount Dept. Store

IT'S AUTO PARTS YOU NEED

AUTO BOYS HAVE IT

$1.88