

John Carber Selected On Blue Cross '11'

John Carber, brilliant tackle for the Neshaminy High football team, has been named to the 1961 honor eleven of the Blue Cross-Blue Shield All-Scholastic team, selected by the members of the Delaware Valley Scholastic Football Coaches Association.

The honor team was picked by four representatives of Suburban area leagues, two from the Catholic, Public and Bux-Mont Leagues, and John Petercuskie, coach of Neshaminy, who represented Lower Bucks.

Lawrence Rudiseill, Central Bucks, was named an end on the honor team and Richard Fillman, Central Bucks, was named to the alternate team.

Award certificates, symbolic of their selection to the all-star elevens, will be presented to team members by Blue Cross-Blue Shield at school assemblies. Joe Rogers, coach of Villanova's backfield, will present the awards.

Association coaches who also served on the selection committee were Paul Bartolomeo, Bishop Neumann; Dave Beloff, Benjamin Franklin; John Czarnecki, Edison; Joe Faragalli, St. Thomas More; Ed Narcum, Nether Providence; Andy Nacrelli, Darby-Colwyn; Lou DeVicaris, Simon Cratz; John Maskas, Central Bucks; Bob Leslie, Upper Darby; and Charlie Tomasco, John Bart-
