Mudie, Stricker, Hart, Schuh Named To Dream Backfield

By DICK DOUGHERTY
Courier-Times Sports Writer

Versatility is the word which best describes the Courier-Times All-Lower Bucks County Football League team this year.

The 1960 "Dream" eleven packs a brutal running attack in Neshaminy High's Harry (The Horse) Schuh and Jack Stricker and Morrisville's mammoth Dick Hart. The backfield is rounded out by the most dangerous passer in the Delaware Valley in several seasons in Bensalem Township's Bobby Mudie.

The Stricker - Schuh - Hart - Mudie combination, the most compact fleet assembled in years, was placed behind a rugged forward wall, which averaged 206 pounds, and keystoned by 220-pound Vince Straszynski of Morrisville and steel-built Bill Druedingof Bensalem.

Team Breakdown

Bensalem, which fetched second in the LBCFL, was honored with four players on the first team. Undefeated Neshaminy gained three places and Morrisville was given two by members of the Courier-Times sports staff. Pennsbury and Bristol came in for one player each.

Representing the Owls of Bensalem were Bruedinger, Etzrodt and Gene Walters. Neshaminy's picks were Schuh, Stricker, and Gene Currie.

Straszynski and Hart came from Morrisville. The Pacers played for Bristol and Kurt Ebert for Delhasa.

3rd Straight Time

Schuh, the unofficial fullback from Neshaminy, made the Courier-Times first team for an unprecedented third time. He was the scoring champion of the Lower Bucks loop and has relinquished the crown to teammate Stricker this campaign by a mere five points.

Stricker and Schuh were the only repeaters from last year's cream of the crop.

Stricker, Schuh and Hart, who finished first, second and third respectively in scoring in the loop this campaign, and Mudie were unanimous choices in the back field.

Big Backfield

The backfield averaged a husky 202.5 pounds per player.

Stricker was the fastest runner in the league and won the scoring title with 78 points and the Skins finished 8-0 in the LBCFL and 10-0-1 in all games. Schuh of Stricker's interference most of the time and still piled up 115 counters himself.

Hart bashed most opposing lines to pieces and handled the punting and kickoff duties for the third-place Skins.

Mudie was a clever field general for the Owls. He missed the touchdown passes, scored six TD's himself and helped the pass-crazy Township eleven to second place by the loss. Bensalem struck for 24 touchdown passes this season.

Hart Versatile

Hart, Mudie, Stricker and Schuh, all seniors, played both on offense and defense for their respective teams.

This year's line has plenty of size and speed. Drueding, who pulled duty in Bensalem's defense this year, was a threat on both offense and as a stonger defensive player. The 165-pound senior was feared by all opponents.

Pascale finished his senior year in football by gaining all-league honors. He played on an undefeated Bristol club that was outstanding week in and week out.

Strong Tackles

Straszynski and Harry were both hoisky tackles who spent considerable time behind the Owls.

Neshaminy's Currie and Bensalem's Etzrodt were "shock" guards. The 185-pound Currie anchored Neshaminy's strong defense on defense and well-groomed offensive.

The center post went to Delhasa' Ebert, a steady 175-pound performer who played both ways for the Tigers. Ebert's mom is the league's most respected official. A seven-year hold by Neshaminy on the all-league pivot spot.

The entire first team is composed of seniors.

Neshaminy took most of the honors on the second team. Four Redskin players, all juniors, made the grade. Bensalem and Wood row Wilson came up with two each, aided by a tie for the center post by Bristol's Conrad Beck and Pennsbury placed one on the squad.

NAIA Soccer Title On The Line Today

SLIPPERY ROCK (UPI) —The soccer championship of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics will be on the line today when Elizabethtown (Pa.) College and Newark (N.J.) class meet.

Both teams gained final berths Friday as Elizabethtown trounced Tober College, Hillsboro, Ohio, 7-0, and Newark, who accounted for three goals, and Jim Shubert with the final mark, 4-0.

Crystal Ball Disappears

Another high school football season is over. You can hear everyone sighing. The winning coaches are sighing because the pressure is off until next fall. The losing coaches are sighing because their clubs don't have to take it on the chin anymore this year.

And one coach, Morrisville's Gordon Davies, sighed so much he announced his retirement after 15 years of putting together Bulldog elevens.

Before going to the Council Rock - Tement game on Thanksgiving Day, I dropped over to the new Courier-Times building on Route 13, to see what our new home looks like. Very elegant!

On the way, we decided to take something along, to make it easier on moving day. We were through with the crystal ball so that was chosen. We put the crystal ball on the floor of the new building where the sports desks will be located, and then heaved the rest of the building.

When we came back to the sports corner, we found the crystal ball was gone. A quick search of the premises revealed that the "handicapper's handyman" had really disappeared. Of course, someone lurking in the shadows could have stolen it, but our guess is that the crystal ball is mirrily rolling around the new building.

As soon as we move to our new quarters, we'll have more time to continue the search. And all we can hope is that we find it before next September.

A Look At The Record

The upset seemed to be the order of the day on T-Day, as Council Rock and Bishop Egan pulled mild surprises. The record for the season shows 45 correct, against 13 incorrect, for a percentage of .776. Four of the losses were ties and if you throw them out, the percentage zooms to .833.

The football season was divided into 12 weeks according to the master schedule on the sports desk. Let's take a quick look back at some of the highlights:

Sept. 9 — Neshaminy opens the season, crushing Bishop Egan, 41-6.

Sept. 16 — Strong Central Bucks eleven outscores Bensalem, 28-14.

Sept. 24 — Burlington edges Bristol, 12-6, in afternoon clash, while in the evening, Neshaminy ties Easton, 12-12.

Sept. 30 — Pennsbury High defeats Tennent, 25-6, with the help of the LBCL season's only field goal.

Oct. 8 — Bishop Egan surprises everyone with an easy 26-7 conquest of Holy Cross.

Oct. 15 — Neshaminy crushes Morrisville, 42-0, (and how wrong can you get, B.B.?)

Oct. 22 — Neshaminy and Bensalem romp over Pennsbury and Bethayres, while Wilson sneaks past Council Rock, 13-7.

Oct. 28 — The ties came and Bristol rallied to nip Council Rock, 14-13, with the fourth quarter TD's. In a postponed game, played the following Monday, Bensalem just did stop Pennsbury, in a 21-20 thriller.

Nov. 5 — Neshaminy walloped Tennent, 55-0, while Bensalem rallied down Morrisville, 19-13.

Nov. 11-12 — JArk Stricker of Neshaminy and Bensalem's Bruce Walton smeaks past Council Rock, 13-7.

Nov. 18-20 — Wilson and Bristol fought to a-6-6 tie; Neshaminy remained LBCL champion with a 32-13 victory, after a 13-13 score at half time; and Egan nipped St. Joseph's, 14-13.

Nov. 24 — Council Rock edged Tennent, 13-12, while other T-Day triumphs went to Morrisville and Egan.

It was a season of the usual and the unusual. Area teams played 58 games and nine of them were decided by three or fewer points. There were four ties, four one-point games and that field goal game.

Corsons Tops Women's Majors At Fairlanes

By LEN HARTMAN
Courier - Times Sports Writer

Corsons, Inc. holds a three game lead in the latest standings of the Women's Major League at Fairlanes with a mark of 34-20. Five Corners Beauty Salon (31-17) is second followed by Owlettes Cleaners and Alvino's Pizzeria Room, knotted for third at 30-18. Harry W. Fawkes (28-20) holds fifth.

In Thursday evening's action, Betty Cheske's 545 and Eleanor Rapuzzi's 202 captured high series and high game honors. Other high scores included Jeanne Varga's 527, Doris Zemnick, 520; Marilyn Lee, 508; Dorothy Larsen, 504; Doris Coyne, 502, and Naomi Dilert, 501.

Five Corners Beauty Salon posted a three game series high of 2433 while Harry W. Fawkes' 838 was the high singles score in team scoring.

Two and one - half games separate the top three teams in the American division of the Y.M.C.A. Church League at Fairlanes. Hope Lutheran (37½-16½) is in first followed by Fairless Methodist (36-18) and First Presbyterian (32-22).

In the National Division, Trinity Lutheran (36-6) leads the pack with First Christian (34-10½ in second and Redeemer Lutheran (29-13).

Scoring honors in last weeks action in the American division went to John Reed, 644/181; Sid Payne, 586, and Ronnie Miller, 574/205. Lindsmen's 3-0 sweep of G. Wallack's 231 was high in the National division.

Sixty-five teams, to date, are entered in the Classic division of the Bensalem Bowling Corsons tournament including a squad from Fairlanes and one from Boulevard Lanes in Philadelphia. The Classic division, brand new in the ABC, is designed to match the best in the bowling world against one another. Every team group will consist of teams having two or more men competing for or better and who qualify under certain other conditions. They will make their debut when the ABC tournament opens at Detroit Coliseum March 4, 1961.

Fred Lemingo will captain the Fairlanes squad consisting of Vince Lucci, 1960 ABC all-events champ, Al Baccardo, George Glaros, Hank Cupristi and Ted Hoffman.

The Boulevard contingent will be headed by John Till and will include John Winters, Don Spada, Harold Zimmerman, Phil Thrma, Jr. and John Vogel.

Scribes Select The Nine 'Bests'

By TOM JUNO
Courier-Times Sports Writer

The Courier-Times Sports Department has selected the nine "bests" of the year in Lower Bucks County league football for the year of 1960. The sports writers had some difficult decisions in making their choices but came up with the following:

PLAYER OF THE YEAR: Morrisville's Dick Hart was chosen for this honor. Hart was also on the outstanding players on the Bulldogs all season. He finished third in the league's scoring and was equally as good playing on the line on defense.

In addition, the Morrisville lackineman did the punting for the team, made the kickoffs and backed many conversions after touchdowns. He was a team overachiever and was on the receiving end of many passes.

BACK OF THE YEAR: Jack Stricker, of Neshaminy, was given this honor. Not only did Stricker lead the league in scoring but Neshaminy's Mr. Inside and Outside was the cog in coach John Petrowski's attempted split-T formation and made many long runs because of his ability to follow his interference and then use his speed after he was out in the open Stricker also played on defense as well as offense.

LINEMAN OF THE YEAR: A Morrisville tackle, Vince Straszynski, 6-2, 225-pounds, was accorded to top lineman. Straszynski played his line position at both offense and defense and always helped bring his side of the Morrisville line found themselves up against a stone wall. He also piled open large holes for the Morrisville backs to slip through for gains.

END OF THE YEAR: This was an easy selection for the sports writers as there is no doubt that Bensalem's Bill Druedinig was by far the best wingman of the loop. Not only did Druedinig play exceptional ball on defense but he caught 16 touchdown passes and many other aerials to put the Owls in scoring positions. Several of his catches were of the hand-type but Druedinig's large hands managed to grasp and hold on to the pigskin.

COACH OF THE YEAR: For bringing the Bensalem team into second place in the circuit, Marlin Van Horn, won this honor.

FULLBACK OF THE YEAR: The fullback position in Neshaminy's single wing offense is the pivot point of the attack and Harry Schuh, 5-9, 175-pounder, made the kind-hearted many conversions after touchdowns. He was a team overachiever and was on the receiving end of many passes.

PASSER OF THE YEAR: Bobby Mudie, Bensalem's Pro Mudie scored the passer of the year honor as he passed the Owls into second place in the league. Both had 12 touchdown passes but Mudie credit should be the league season and completed many others for a high percentage.

In the three games played before 11,000 fans, on Thanksgiving Day, the following were picked:

BACK OF THE WEEK — Morrisville's Ted Tomchick scored a touchdown and pitched to four others to lead the Bulldogs to an easy triumph over Bristol.

LINEMAN OF THE WEEK: Woodrow Wilson's Bill Hollenbach who played an outstanding defensive game as the Rebel Catholic Bish despite his team's 31-12 defeat.

PLAY OF THE WEEK: Joe Pascale's 80-yard run for a touchdown on a quarterback option play in the Bristol - Egan game was the touchdown against Wilson.

COACH OF THE WEEK: Gordon Davies, of Morrisville, who bowed out after 15 years as coach of the Bulldogs. His team routed Council Rock in their annual Turkey Day classic, the largest score in the 15-year old series.

GOAT OF THE WEEK: Council Rock's 13-12 triumph over Wil-

GRIDDER PLANS MARRIAGE

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (UPI) —Mike McKeever, a star guard for the University of Southern California football team before undergoing brain surgery last month, has obtained a marriage license to wed classmate Judy Primrose.

The 20-year old McKeever said he and Miss Primrose, twin brother Marlin, an end on the Southern Cal football squad, will be married in a double wedding Dec. 3.

Liam Tennent which if tradition is followed makes the Indians season successful. The triumph also put CH ahead in the 10-year old series with eight wins, seven losses, and a tie.
