Easton didn't win, Neshaminy lost, That was the story of last night's high school football game at Playwich Field, which attacted 7.000 fans, the largest crowd ever to witness a football game in Lower Bucks County.

Neshaminy's gridders outplayed Easton for three periods. The final statistics show that Easton gained 68 more yards than Neshaminy, but most of this advantage came on gains in the fourth period.

The Redskins were "up" for the game, There's ne doubt about that. They even came out outbe field, led by a "real, live injun." At least, it was baskethall player Danny Hayes, masquerading as Chief Neshaminy.

Four mistakes by Neshaminy players played the key role in Easton's victory. Ed Kaminski bob-bled the opening kickoff. Easton recovered and went down for a quick score. Neshaminy got the ball and drove to the Easton nine yard line, but here Tom Rickards lost possession on a running play. Jack Stricker stayed with John Aviantos when Jack Stricker stayed with John Aviantos when the latter went out for a fourth down pass in the fourth quarter. Stricker couldn't knock the ball down, and Aviantos grabbed Tom Bender's aerial for the winning TD. Harry "Horseshoe" Schul alayed a good game but he grabbed an Easton player's face mask in making a tackle in the clos-gn minutes and cost the Recklism Is 'yards at a minutes and cost and they couldn't afford it.

To sum it up, Neshaminy played good football, but every mistake it made was costly. Easton was not only scored upon for the first time, but the Red Rovers knew they were in a ball game, for the full 8 minutes of play. The two schools should start huddling immediately to set up a re-match for 1980.
