Neshaminy '11' Routs Egan

'Roughriders' Pick Up 395 Yards Rushing, Wallop Eagles, 41-6

Neshaminy High School hit the football jackpot on the first try last night and ran roughshod over Bishop Egan Catholic High School of Levittown, 41-6.

Tommy McMillan and Jack Stricker scored a pair of touchdowns each on long runs to spark the Redskins to a crushing victory before an opening night crowd of 6,500 fans, the largest first game throng in the history of Lower Bucks County Football.

The "Roughriders" of Neshaminy rolled up a bruising 395 yards on the turf and continually ripped "Captain Jack's Raiders," Egan's defensive unit to shreds under the brutal onslaughts of Harry (The Horse) Schuh, Stricker and scrapping McMillan.

The Eagles of Egan got to perfect only one substantial offensive movement last night and dulled 48 sparks by a score with Al Pezzick, a 5-10, 155-pound sophomore, slamming over the wide stripe from six yards out in the third period.*

Neshaminy, the defending Lower Bucks County Football League champions, got the 1960 grid season off to a flying start last night by winning.

Bensalem Township will be in the post looks at 7 o'clock when the Owls play host to Bridgeport of the Inter-County Football League. Bensalem will send an all-veteran array against the Dragons.

McMillan, a 5-8, 150-pound senior scatback who played in the 10 minutes in 1958 came into his own last night and scored two touchdowns on runs of 34 and 68 yards and had another attempt recalled on an illegal procedure penalty in the fourth period.

Stricker, Neshaminy's "Mr. Outside", spun four yards and outraced Egan on another jaunt of 77 yards for a pair of TD's. Schuh, the 230-pound fullback, gashed the 17 yards to hit the scoring column in the second quarter.

Neshaminy's other marker came in the third period when substitute Jimmy Rottrock carved the 25 yards into "Touchdown Land."

Ground Attack

The Redskins remained on the ground most of the night. McMillan handled the ball only four times, Schuh was given twelve and picked up 111 yards for a 9.3 yards per carry.

Stricker's speed was too much for Egan. He pushed the ball 16 times, scored twice and piled up 139 lengths. Schuh had an 8.3 average on eight totes.

Egan's best offensive threat was 5-7, 148-pound Phil Batunio. Batunio was tossed 13 times and had nearly five yards per carry with 64 yards credited to himself.

Quick Score

Neshaminy wasted no time in getting in front of the Eagles. In five plays the "Roughriders" marched 48 yards with McMillan running 34-yards to hit the scoring column. Bill Schemberg, the left-footed extra point booter, missed his only try in six.

Egan's Mike Creed fumbled four plays later and Neshaminy's Alan Heller, a 6-6, 185-pound end, fell on the ball on the Egan 44-yard line. Five plays later, aided by a personal foul penalty, Stricker sliced over from four yards away. Schemberg's boot was true and Neshaminy led, 13-0.

On the last play of the first period, Stricker fled 27 yards around the right end to give Neshaminy the County powerhouse its football, a 20-0 lead.

Egan kicked away as the half neared when the Redskins took over on the Egan 40-yard line. McMillan picked up eight yards and Stricker tired a 30-yard scoring pass from Bob Batunio. A 14-pound sophomore, Stricker raced for the 34-yard TD. Schemberg made it 34-0 at the half.

Egan Scores

Egan took the second half kickoff and spun 49 yards through the middle of Neshaminy's defensive forward wall and broke the scoring ice on 14 plays. Batunio skipped into the end zone from six yards away. An attempted kick for the PAT went astray on a poor pass from center.

Neshaminy owned the vicinity most of the second half and only in the last 30 ticks of the game did Egan threaten. Batunio's 14-pound sophomore end, Jim Sikma lift the third period. He climaxed a 66-yard advance with a 25-yarder around left end.

Cards Trim Phils, 4-1

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The second-place St. Louis Cardinals trimmed the cellar-dwelling Philadelphia Phillies, 4-1, Friday night, paced by Walt Moryn's three-run homer in the fifth.

The game, on its fifth innings by rain, was the first of a three-game series.

Moryn slammed his homer into the left field bleachers, his 12th of the season, off starter Robin Roberts with two mates on, following a double by Stan Musial and a walk to Ken Boyer.

The victory broke their five-game in a row—hinging to move up on the league-leading Pittsburgh Pirates, who batter Larry Jackson potted his 16th win of the season against 12 defeats.

Philadelphia kept it from being a complete rout as Bobby Del Greco hit a two-out double and Bobby Malkmus singled in the run.

Roberts, who is now 9-15, has allowed the first two runs in 30 innings. He left in the sixth when a heavy downpour flooded the field and brought about cancellation after a delay of 44 minutes.

The Phillies scored their only run in the first on Julian Javier's double as outfield fly and Musial's single.

Neshaminy Harriers Defeat Bishop Egan

Joe Trachy brought a little joy to Bishop Egan fans last night by placing first in the nine-man cross-country match between Bishop Egan and Neshaminy High School which was held during halftime of the Eagles-Redskin football game. Neshaminy won the meet, however, 28-55.

Trachy's time of 12:01 for the hay and two-tenths mile distance was enough to give him the individual win and the Redskins, defending Lower Bucks County cross-country League champions, took the next five positions to bring home the victory in the season's opener for both schools.

The order of finishing was as follows: Trachy, BE; 2, Frank Lisle, N; 3, Leonard Fontland, N; 4, Bill Pasch, N; 5, Sandford Bergold, N; 6, Ron Yang, N; 7, Bob Murphy, BE; 8, Tom Dalton, BE; 9, Ray Hickey, BE; 10, Bill Saternsky, BE.

Officials for the meet were Dick Brown, starter and head timer, and Dick Webber, clerk of the course.

Browns To Unleash Powder Keg Offense

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—The Cleveland Browns will unleash a "powder keg" offense fueled by quarterback Milt Plum in an effort to wrestle the National Football League's Eastern Division championship from the New York Giants.

The offense features the passing of Plum, the powerful rushing of All-Pro fullback Jimmy Brown and the outside duties of halfback Bobby Mitchell.

The Browns' offense got its greatest test from San Francisco quarterback Red Hickey after his 49ers fell before the Browns, 26-24, in an exhibition game.

"They certainly are an explosive team," Hickey said. "Plum and them is like sitting on a powder keg—and every once in a while it goes off."

Coach Stresses Pass

Coach Paul Brown concocted two explosive weapons more than ing the strong shoulders of fullback Brown piled heavy emphasis on the pass during summer drills. Plum appeared to be firmly entrenched in the signal-calling spot, although he had to fend off the challenge of Len Dawson, Brown's throw in a trade with Pittsburgh.

The major enigma in the Browns' future is the deep defense. Brown's defensive backfield was riddled by the retirement of Warren Lahr and Kenny Konz and the trade of Don Colo to Pittsburgh. Dick Mostrada of Kent, and company.

The Bobby Franklin of Mississippi, Ross Fichtner of Purdue, and Don Shinnick of Rice.

Rugged enda Jim Houston and Jim Marshall, both of Ohio State, will be counted upon to provide the defensive punishment.

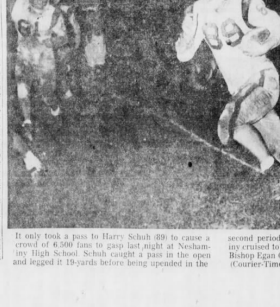
Other newcomers are Gern Nagler, obtained in a trade with Pittsburgh for linebacker Carl Taseff, and Jer John Morrow, swapped for Art Hunter in a deal with the Los Angeles Rams, and end Gene Heeter, who was obtained from the Rams.

The Browns, who haven't won a divisional title since 1957 when they copped the crown by the slim margin of a game, are picked by Detroit for the league championship, went to training camp with a 39-man squad. Brown will trim the team missing as a result of trades, retirement and drafts by Dallas.

This turnover surpassed the shakeup of three years ago when 14 players departed after Cleveland's only losing season.

Despite the revisions, the Browns retained the core of their team and should be tough and quick. Mike McCormack, nine-year veteran Ray Renfro, Plum, Brown

Schuh Displays Free-Wheeling Tactics



It only took a pass to Harry Schuh (39) to cause a crowd of 6,500 fans to gasp last night at Neshaminy High School. Schuh caught a pass in the open and legged it 19-yards before being upended in the second period. He scored two plays later. Neshaminy cruised to an easy 41-6 triumph over Levittown's Bishop Egan Catholic in the opener for both schools. (Courier-Times Sports Photo By Stan Michaels)
