

Sports Views

By Ben Borowsky

Sports Editor

Strange Season

The 1957 football season - high school, college and professional - will be remembered as the Asian Flu season. Every season there are a great many upsets, but we seem to be having more than our regular share this year.

The flu was not responsible for the big local surprise on Saturday. Pennsbury was knocked from the unbeaten ranks by a powerful (but hot and cold) Tennent eleven. For the first time in many years we truly have a balanced league. There are four teams - Morrisville, Neshaminy, Pennsbury and Tennent - capable of knocking each other off every weekend.

* * *

The other four teams are not soft touches either. Bristol, on a dry day, can give everyone trouble. Delhaas is improving. So is Council Rock. Bensalem has more ability than its record indicates. In fact, some spectators think Morrisville was very fortunate to beat the Owls.

* * *

Fortunate or not, Morrisville is the team to beat now. The Bulldogs face three tough opponents in Neshaminy, Pennsbury and Bristol. Morrisville, coached by Gordon Davies, Dick Lee and Alex MacDonald, has an offense that is effective both on the ground and through the air.

If the Morrisville defensive unit can hold up without any injuries, coach Davies' can wrap up the title.

* * *

Over the weekend we were right on Morrisville and Neshaminy. We went down with Pennsbury and for the sake of statistical convenience we'll throw in the tie as a wrong guess. The record is now 21-14.