

One more game. The 29th annual Bucks County Lions Club Bob Sands Memorial All-Star Football Game will be played tomorrow night at Poppy Yoder Field in Perkasie, Pennridge's home field.

The North team will be made up of graduating seniors from Archbishop Wood, Central Bucks East, Central Bucks West, Council Rock, Pennridge, Quakertown and William Tennent. It will be coached by Pennridge's Jeff Hollenbach.

The South team of Morrisville coach Jim Gober will have players from Bensalem, Bristol, Conwell-Egan, George School, Harry S Truman, Morrisville, Neshaminy and Pennsbury.

The North won last year's game, 28-0. On the North roster is C.B. West's Dustin Picciotti, Pennsylvania's big-school player of the year.
